Fair Winds Press. Paperback. Condition: New. James Brisson (illustrator). 128 pages. Formed in Los Angeles in 1981, Metallica has become the bestselling heavy metal act in music history, with more than 100 million worldwide album sales to its credit. The band remains hugely popular around the globe: in 2009, Metallica's 1991 self-titled LP became the bestselling album of the SoundScan era. They have toured in the United States, Canada, Europe, Asia, Australia, and even Antarctica (in 2013), the only band to perform on all seven continents. In this book, the first complete illustrated history of the band, acclaimed heavy metal journalist Martin Popoff leads a roster of celebrated heavy metal writers, including Richard Bienstock, Daniel Bukszpan, Neil Daniels, Andrew Earles, Gary Graff, Jaan Uhelszki, and Mick Wall, to take on Metallica's story, analyzing each of the group's studio albums and providing a complete discography. More than 300 images complement the band's story: their formative years spent woodshedding in the clubs of Los Angeles, tragedies like the death of founding bassist Cliff Burton, the triumphs of multiple platinum recordings, personnel changes like the departures of Dave Mustaine and Jason Newsted, and tours around the world. Live-performance and candid backstage photographs are...
