Reviews

This pdf is definitely not easy to get started on studying but quite entertaining to read through. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

Not illustrated. 1910 Excerpt: .way for Liberty! he cried, as he dashed into the lines. A hundred spears were turned to catch him upon their points. The soldiers forgot to stay in their places. The lines were broken. Arnold s friends rushed bravely after him. They had no thought of fear, and they won at last.--Adapted from Baldwin s Fifty Famous Stories Retold. I. What was the danger to Switzerland? What was about to happen to the people? For what were the men of Switzerland fighting? How did their army compare with that of the enemy? What did the bowmen do? With what result? What was tried next? With what success? Then what happened? II. Tell in class, in your own words, the story of Arnold Winkelried. Also tell stories of other brave men who have died for their country. III. Tell all you can about the kind of man Arnold Winkelried was; how you think he would treat his animals; whether he was kind to his children; and how much he loved his country, as shown by things told in the story. IV. Write or tell the story of a brave deed, real or imaginary, done by a boy or a girl. V. Set Anna said to Mary: Father set his watch last night. I set the table. Henry set the pitcher on the table while George was setting a trap for a rat. Tell two things that you can set on the floor. (Thus, I can set the...
