

Claws of the Dragon: A Riveting Tale by Author Joellen Heath (Paperback)

By Joellen Heath

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Claws of the Dragon by JoEllen Heath is derived from the story of a monk, Ti Chan, in a monastery in India, who escaped death during the religious war spreading from India to China. Embarking on a ship, he arrived in Chin Chew - and his mission was to bring the package shoved underneath his robes by an elder monk who was dying from a Mongolian s arrow to the Monastery Wong Tai Chow and guard it with his life, but when he arrived in Chin Chew, he was killed. It was Hung Lee, the antique shop owner who witnessed what happened and whom he left the task to fulfill his mission. What was inside the package? Will Hung Lee follow Ti Chan s instruction? Claws of the Dragon opens the story of the few people who have an important connection with what was inside the package - the ornately carved violet jade, the pear-shaped, greenish blue emerald and the two plum-sized black pearls with gold streaks flashing from within each center like the eyes of a tiger. Many years...
