Of these Chi will lose with the Senior class, W. C. DeWitt, who will go next year to the General Theological Seminary, New York, and E. S. Wells, who will probably go to Nashotah. Besides Bros. DeWitt and Wells, Bro. Steel intends to leave Racine and complete his college course at the Harvard Law School, and I expect to go next year to the Rensseler Polytechnic Institute, at Troy. This will leave Chi with only four men to begin next year, and, although her founders will all have left her when Bros. Wells and Steel go, I have no fear concerning her safety. She has now a good hall and is established on firm foundations which nothing short of the destruction of the college itself can shake. With her best wishes to the Journal and her sister chapters. I remain Yours Fraternally....
