Excerpt: . . . the words In Lahore, corresponding to 1615, and is probably the date of the building of the tomb, while the other refers to the death of Anar Kali. The story is that Anar Kali was beloved by Salim, and was seen by Akbar, his father, to smile when the Prince entered the harem. As a punishment for this it is said that she was buried alive; and the distich engraved on her sarcophagus certainly indicates that Salim was her lover. This tomb is in the civil station, which also contains some imposing modern buildings. The chief are the High Court, the Government College, the Mayo Hospital (see below). The Cathedral is a cruciform building of brick, occupying a very central site E. of the Museum and Post Office. The old building, called the Shah Ohriagh is used as the AccountantGenera1s Office-the additions were designed...
