Not illustrated. 1911 Excerpt: . oak, and no more does were killed nor boasting of the same. Another in this same issue says, we started toward camp and just as we came out of the timber to an opening a fine doe jumped out and started away from us. We both began shooting at her and fired seven shots before she fell. Think of it, boys, such a ruthless slaughter of female deer! When a doe is three years old she brings forth two fawns and if she is unmolested this will be repeated for each succeeding year for six or seven years. Just figure for yourself a little and you will soon see the number of deer destroyed when one doe is killed. I have hunted in different places in California, where the man who killed a doe was forever in disgrace, and have known of men being driven out of camp for killing does. Now boys, if the Legislature of your state will not make laws to protect females, let us protect them ourselves. Marvin Eubanks, Lewis Co., Washington. As I bought a new Remington.22 cal. rifle a short time ago, I thought I would let the readers of the H-T-T know the results. It is the Standard grade and a fine little gun. It is as accurate as any.22 made and is easily cleaned from the breech. The action is a little hard at first but soon gets all right. The safety is safe, which is more...
