

A Paper on Forestry (Classic Reprint)

By John D Lyman

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Paper on Forestry I intend in this paper to further, but briefly, illustrate and enforce a few fundamental principles of forestry of which I have before treated. I am encouraged to do this by the number of groves which I see have been attended to in various and widely-separated sections of the state since this effort in behalf of forestry was commenced; and by the invitations I receive to lecture upon the subject; and letters requesting copies of my paper upon forestry, published in the last report of the Board of Agriculture (my three hundred extra copies are exhausted); and of letters inquiring for information upon certain points. These letters come not only from this and other New England states, but from the central and Western. B. E. Fernow, chief of the division of forestry under our government, says that the total annual product of wood material of all sorts consumed in the United States may be valued, in round numbers, at one billion ($1,500,000,000) dollars, or, roughly speaking, twenty-five billion (25,000,000,000) cubic feet...
