A provocative and revealing journey of a two-step marriage uniting very different personalities. She was a Pisces while he was a Gemini, not a good combination according to an early observer. Somewhat in the tradition of Erma Bombeck, get ready for a off-beat view of home and family, the parenting of a jackrabbit child, sleep and survival, spontaneous home-buying, and the pursuit of Priscilla curtains. Discover details about the annual convention of magicians in Colon, Michigan, and the inspiration and commitment for Spanish Colonial Retablos. The dangerous world of fur coats, tundra travel, and the purchase of an 1840 pine bed provide entertaining detours along the way. Valuable guidance is provided about Guardian Angels, mortality, and preparing for the next life. Intimate glimpses of both conventional and long-distance marriage arrangements are described, with airtight suggestions for an Egyptian Affair To Remember. This is a heart-warming celebration of challenges, resilience, and the zest for life.
