This book was originally conceived from the University of Leicester in the United Kingdom Department of Education (now the Institute of lifelong education) professor of psychology experience. In teaching, I gradually became aware of the need to introduce the subject from a broader angle. from the perspective of the reader to choose the topics discussed. to consider the needs of people daily interest. rather than a specific syllabus. The vast majority of people have. such as history. geography. mathematics and natural sciences such knowledge base. but psychology. a closely related discipline with all of us. not as the basic constituent elements of the school curriculum. Surprisingly. it is difficult to find a book introduced in a date. but also a way to inspire people interested in psychology. We try we found most interesting. teaching all the topics related to the daily life brings together. We hope that this book can serve as a starting point to make you a lifelong interest in psychology. Similarly. based on this consideration. we recommend you some books and reference materials. We also hope that all those engaged in the teaching of psychology will find this book highly readable. and very easy for...
