Hope's Last Home: Travels in Milk River Country

By Tony Rees

Brindle and Glass Publishing, Ltd. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Hope's Last Home: Travels in Milk River Country, Tony Rees, South of Lethbridge, Alberta, Highway 62 climbs from the floor of an ancient glacial lake to the crest of a low ridge, crosses a continental divide and drops to meet the Milk River arching up from Montana. The austere, dry land within this great three-hundred-mile ellipse is home to the continent's last vestiges of shortgrass plains and holds a history unique in all the Americas. Now parts of Montana, Alberta, and Saskatchewan, Milk River country has been at the centre of the epic boom-and-bust extremes that gave final shape to the Prairie West. It was the place where the last continental glaciers stalled and began to die. It was the ancient domain of the Blackfoot and Assiniboine people, and then, in the 150 years it took to settle the course of European empire in North America, it lived under the flags of five nations - France, Spain, Great Britain, the United States, and Canada. It was here, as European settlement encroached, that the remnant buffalo, the prairie wolf, and the plains grizzly waited out their final days. It was...
