

Why Women Lie to Men: Gold-Digging, Paternity Fraud, Double Standards (Paperback)

By MR Cato Elder

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Women tell up to thirty lies a day to mislead others and avoid punishment. One common reason for lying on the part of gold-diggers involves slowly manipulating and misleading men into giving women meal tickets for life, meaning marriage with food, housing and other benefits included. Marriage often turns into a raw deal for men, given that DNA testing evidence shows that up to thirty percent of children have fathers who are not married their mothers. Such women see marriage as a launch pad for extramarital promiscuity subsidized by their husbands. Unwed mothers are even worse, many of whom stick the name of any man who comes to mind on birth certificates in order to get child support founded on birth certificate fraud. Lying to men has two primary causes. One, female narcissism is socially reinforced by other women, who encourage and legitimize all sorts of lies directed at misleading men. Two, over half of all women use psychiatric drugs and non-psychiatric drugs that produce psychiatric side effects such as clinical depression, which renders them untruthful. Many women choose...
