AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2006. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .YIKES! The original manuscript was reviewed by an Atlanta PhD. and sexologist who commented: Some of this is very good, especially the Ode. But it's half-baked. Also you don't need to go to a priest for help. Yes, I do think you may be Bi-sexual. * * * Others have said: Whew, just awful, a stream of consciousness that is very upsetting. I wouldn't buy it any price! - A Catholic Priest and Author. Somebody had to do it. A girl at Kinko's. I was just getting it on and then it turned me off. A former truck driver. * * * The book is in two themes: the first is an embellished narrative with graphic intermission. The second is a play with the Freudian characters of the Ego, Superego and Id narrating a truer, less embellished version that is somewhat preachy and moralistic. The intent of the book remains a mystery. Although as an aging, still sexually confused person, I hope it may speak a message of hope. Finally, the genre is one that a male or female can really relate to having experienced similar drives, desires and imaginings that have not been expressed so graphically or truly. Yeah, I tried that, and thought about it. I would never tell anybody because I would turn purple and die of shame.
