Henry Dunster was the first President of Harvard College. Coming to hold certain teachings of the Baptists, he was compelled, for conscience sake, to resign his high office. One accepting such teachings was not to be tolerated as president of the college. Had he lived it is believed by many that he would have been the natural choice of this church for its first minister. The Memorial Tablet is presented by descendants of Dunster by the name of Whittemore. The answer of Dunster to the Court when under indictment for disturbing the ordinance of infant baptism in the Cambridge church But for the matter, I conceived then, and so do still, that I spake the truth in the feare of God, and dare not deny the same or go from it untill the Lord otherwise teach me, and this I pray the Honored Court to take for mine Answer. From the Church Calendar for the day, November twenty-fourth, nineteen hundred and seven. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
