Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Memorial of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations: Relative to the Rights of the Mississippi Choctaws The land thereby acquired by the Choctaw Nation in exchange for the 4,000,000 acres of their land in the State of Mississippi embraced all of the land that the Choctaw Nation ever acquired west of the Mississippi River. During the decade following the date of this treaty the Southeastern States were being rapidly settled by white persons, and it was determined by the authorities of the United States that it was desirable to effectuate the removal of all the Indians residing in that locality to a territory to be set apart to them west of the Mississippi River. The Choctaws by their treaty of 1820 had already acquired a large domain west of the river, and commissioners were sent to Mississippi to treat with them and to obtain, if possible, their removal to their lands west. Accordingly the treaty of September 27, 1830, was negotiated. On behalf of the United States John H.Eaton and John Coffee were appointed commissioners, and...

Reviews

An extremely awesome publication with lucid and perfect explanations. It is actually written in basic phrases rather than confusing. You will like how the writer publishes this book.
