Excerpt from Commemoration of Public Education, in Recognition of the Fiftieth Anniversary of the Creation of the State Board of Education and of the Seventy-Fifth Anniversary of the Appointment of the Commissioner of Education: Commemorative Exercises Held at Rhode Island College of Education, December 3, 1920; Address by Hon. John H. Finley, President of the University of the State of New York and Commissioner of Education When the first annual appropriation for the support of free public evening schools was made in 1873, the apportionment was entrusted to the Board, as was also the apportionment of the appropriation for free public libraries, first made in 1875. In a general way the legislation for supporting evening schools and free public libraries was of a new type; theretofore the apportionment Of appropriations for public education had been determined by ratios specified in the statutes. While there had been in the seventy years from 1800 to 1870 a tendency to establish ratios in accord with a policy gradually developed of disbursing public school money with emphasis upon the need for support, attempts to solve this...
