Twerp was furious at Satan! Satan hadn t allowed him to even get a single word in edgewise in his long monologue of self-pity and utter defeat! Get a grip on yourself, Oh Continual Loser at Everything You Do! This battle may have been lost but the never ending war still goes on. Yes, but Twerp, we have lost every battle we have ever fought against I AM! He whined almost uncontrollably! Every battle, I say! In fact, every thing we do to cause harm and evil, I AM takes it and instead, turns it into good! I mean from the very beginning when we first rebelled, every stinking battle we have ever launched against I AM has been for naught! . . . Oh I tell you, Twerp, I just don t see how much longer we can keep doing the things we do and still keep losing. I mean, my own demons may launch a mutiny against us before too much longer. Oh Utterly Defeated One, yes, all of the battles have been lost. But, again, they are only battles ! But I m telling you, again, the war is not over. It will never end until I AM finally declares it s over! So do not lose hope, let me think for a while and see what I can come up with. Okey dokey, Twerp. I trust you. You re the only demon I have with common-sense.
