Excerpt: .fought the first day s fight and did not see the Landing, were not heard from until after the first impressions were engraven upon the public mind. I have wandered from the subject of the toast. I hope you will excuse the digression. I am glad, while I still have a sound mind and a retentive memory, to have an opportunity to bear my testimony upon this subject before such an audience. Thanking you for your attention, I say, good-night. Second Volunteer Toast. The Sutler. Response By fitut. pirtiit. $MtU, it. ft. Sols. I feel more like a conscript than a volunteer. It was the great Napoleon s method to assign conscripts to skeleton veteran regiments, the quicker to accustom this raw material to the discipline of camp and the dangers of battle. In an engagement, a victim of the draft thus placed was...
