

The First Ever Christmas: And Who to Blame (Paperback)

By Gray Jolliffe

Amberley Publishing, United Kingdom, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. UK ed.. Language: English . Brand New Book. Over 2000 years ago, 24 hours BC, the shops were empty. There were no Christmas trees, no decoration, no tinsel, no houses swamped in fairy lights, no flashing Santas in sleighs, pulled by lit up reindeer. Turkeys slept the happy sleep of the unworried. But then a carpenter called Joseph and a virgin called Mary had a baby. And the next day the world change forever. Marketing was born. Henceforth all mankind would receive annual gift items whether they wanted them or not. Do you want the full story? The details who said what whom? And what whom said back? The joy, the angst, the tears, the guilt? Don't get your hopes up. This is a cartoon book. This is a wry and hilarious humour book from one of Britain's best cartoonists.
