TRANSFORMATIVE LEADERSHIP AND EDUCATIONAL EXCELLENCE: LEARNING ORGANIZATIONS IN THE INFORMATION AGE

Sense Publishers. Paperback. Condition: New. 388 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.1in. x 1.0in. On records, the evolution of human development pays a considerable tribute to the relentless efforts made by generations of teacher educators set out to train academic leaders and teachers committed to the implementation of educational policies parallel to the mental edification of young students. Teacher educators, faced the challenges, overcame the obstacles, and refined the pedagogies of our educational system with many innovative approaches. As the world faces increasing uncertainties and adamant shifts of knowledge economy, it is apparent that education plays an ultimate role in creating adept and geared up citizens, to lead the way to the future. Designing and managing learning school organizations that can sustain a competitive advantage in this fast-changing environment demands transformative leaders primed and ready to the building of our intellectual capital for the future. Many books on teacher education, educational management and leadership have been written in the past, but most of them do not keep up with the fast-changing educational scene and only a few include future scenarios. This book presents the anticipated trends and demands of the new knowledge economy, and it aims to achieve its goals with the use of various tools, generative and collaborative efforts, increasing leadership capability in dynamic and complex contexts, enculturation of cutting edge knowledge for educational advancement and creation of teams that focus learning organizations. This book brings together prominent and leading teacher educators and researchers from around the world to present their scholarship, theories and practice, case studies, state-of-the-art approaches and upshot predictions. This book embodies collective knowledge inquiry and represents professional conversations. The chapters provide information on recent trends and development in teacher education, the important role of educational management and leadership in educational transformations and promising practices for desired...
