Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Everyone has reasons to remember their childhood including the friends and family members who remain with us long after they have died. In Waving Back, the author makes a humorous and engaging attempt to communicate with the deceased parents who helped him make his way through life. A fast read, it is an entertaining, intriguing chronicle of a family s brief time together, of missed opportunities and sacrifices made, of a family the way they were and the way they are today. Dear Mom and Dad: It has been more than sixty years since your deaths. As a child, I didn t fully appreciate the difficulties, hardships, worries and hopes you shared in your short lives. Nor did I understand just how very young you both were. In your forties. Today, your grandchildren are that age and I think of them as kids. So much has happened since you died. And mom, they never did tell me what you died of two years later, but I m convinced it was from a broken heart. Read this book and take your own personal trip down memory lane. This enticing saga will have you recalling the fond memories from life and perhaps shedding a tear or two.
