By Lucius W Barber

Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Army Memoirs of Lucius W. Barber, Company D, 15th Illinois Volunteer Infantry: May to Sept, 30, 1865 In the War for the Preservation of the American Union, the principles which were involved in the struggle met with a glorious triumph in maintaining the integrity of the Union and the supremacy of constitutional law. Striking the shackles from four millions of human beings, it has purged our land from the foul stain of human slavery, thus placing it upon a secure foundation for the preservation of freedom by granting to all who come under its protection life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. All the leading incidents connected with the Rebellion are now before the people, and each can trace, if they will the perilous track through which our noble Ship of State so triumphantly breasted the tide of treason and rebellion and rolled back the waves of secession which threatened to engulf us all in one common ruin, and the twenty-five hundred thousand men who shouldered the musket and fought for the cause, are each partakers of the glory of the...
