Excerpt: . the plainness and artlessness of this people. Who would imagine that they lived within ten, yea, or fifty miles of Oxford? Wed. 16. I preached at South-Lye. Here it was that I preached my first sermon, six and forty years ago. One man was in my present audience who heard it; most of the rest are gone to their long home. After preaching at Witney in the evening, I met the believers apart, and was greatly refreshed among them. So simple a people I -scarce ever saw. They did open the window in their breast: and it was easy to discern that God was there, filling them with joy and peace in believing. Thur. 17. About ten I preached at Oxford, in a room well filled with deeply-attentive hearers, on part of the Sermon on the Mount, the noblest compendium of religion which...
