

Villette (Dover Thrift Editions)

By Charlotte Bront

Dover Publications. Paperback. Condition: New. 528 pages. Bereft of family and friends, Lucy Snowe flees her empty life in England to seek independence and fulfillment in a wider world. Her gambit takes her to the Belgian town of Villette, where she secures a job teaching English to the fractious girls of Madame Becks boarding school. Sensitive but resolute, Lucy struggles with feelings of isolation, and she despairs of her relationships with an English doctor and a haughty schoolmaster. Her dilemma finding a romance that offers both intimacy and freedom remains as resonant today as it was for Victorian readers. Charlotte Bront's last and most autobiographical novel is a vivid narrative of deftly drawn characters and memorably depicted places. Originally published in 1853, it reflects the author's deep loneliness at the loss of her siblings. The remarkably modern heroine, a creature of moody complexity, far predates the advent of psychoanalysis. Villette is nevertheless a powerfully moving psychological study, acclaimed by George Eliot as a still more wonderful book than Jane Eyre, and by Virginia Woolf as Bront's finest novel. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
