

Learning From Data: An Introduction To Statistical Reasoning (Hardback)

By Arthur M. Glenberg, Matthew Andrzejewski

Taylor Francis Inc, United States, 2007. Hardback. Condition: New. 3rd Revised edition. Language: English . Brand New Book. Learning from Data focuses on how to interpret psychological data and statistical results. The authors review the basics of statistical reasoning to help students better understand relevant data that affect their everyday lives. Numerous examples based on current research and events are featured throughout. To facilitate learning, authors Glenberg and Andrzejewski: * Devote extra attention to explaining the more difficult concepts and the logic behind them * Use repetition to enhance students' memories with multiple examples, reintroductions of the major concepts, and a focus on these concepts in the problems * Employ a six-step procedure for describing all statistical tests from the simplest to the most complex * Provide end-of-chapter tables to summarize the hypothesis testing procedures introduced * Emphasizes how to choose the best procedure in the examples, problems and endpapers * Focus on power with a separate chapter and power analyses procedures in each chapter * Provide detailed explanations of factorial designs, interactions, and ANOVA to help students understand the statistics used in professional journal articles. The third edition has a user-friendly approach: * Designed to be used seamlessly with Excel, all of...
