WHO S GONNA PAY THE MORTGAGE?: A WOMAN S GUIDE TO RELATIONSHIP RECOVERY (PAPERBACK)

I-Female Publishing, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Have you ever sat back and wondered why your life is going the way it is? Have you ever sat back and really examined why you are in a situation that could have been avoided? Or maybe pondered over scenes in your life that has fostered a broken heart? Maybe you have been caught up with situations where you relied on strength of others. Whatever your case, Who s gonna pay the mortgage introduces women from every walk of life to a different point of view, no matter what their situation. This is a powerful adaptation of how everyday women, like you and I, deal with matters of self-love and relationship recoveries. The book is broken down into elements that help women re-discover and in some cases re-invent their selves to become more positive in every aspect of their lives. The book opens with I Female, a tribute to the female empowerment. It allows us to be able to look into ourselves, as strong individuals and not just survivors or victims. It also reminds us that we as women are critically needed. Because of this need, we often forget about our own needs as individuals. The book also ventures into places normally not visited by female authors. Don t Fall In Love with the Cover is an eye opening chapter that emphasizes on looking beyond the normal protocol when you are trying to find a mate. This chapter holds no punches because it goes straight to the source of what women target. It takes us down the path that we normally don t revisit to show us where we fall short when we make decisions. It further goes into how we pick our...
