Coco, the glamorous city dog, travels to Africa in this thrilling tale from award-winning author, Vanessa Del Fabbro, and critically-acclaimed artist, Hedwige Jacobs. A story of prejudice and acceptance, this book s clever rhymes and deceptively simple illustrations will transport young readers from the bustle of a big city to the open plains of Africa. On an early morning drive to see animals in the wild, Coco loses her balance, falls off the back of the jeep and finds herself all alone in the African bush. An odd-looking wild dog with sticking-up ears comes to her rescue, and our unlikely duo embarks on an exhilarating adventure to reunite Coco with her family.
