Excerpt: .as he can swallow give him some brandy and water. Now, what is the condition of things in his case? If we could look into his chest and abdomen we would find all the numerous veins of the entire intestinal canal, peritoneum and of other viscera contained in the abdominal cavity intensely injected with blood, their coats almost paralyzed; the arteries and the left side of the heart would be found empty, and consequently the heart has ceased to beat. The man is practically dead, and beautifully exemplifies the possibility of one s bleeding to death into one s own veins. No matter, then, where the blood is; as long as there is none in the left heart and the arteries, the man must die. Therefore, all indications for treatment in these cases are the prompt employment of all such means as are calculated getting...
