BURDEN (THE BURDEN TRILOGY) (VOLUME 1)

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 352 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.9in. Burden is a novel that follows the life and trials of a young boy named Artemis Burden. As the healer of a village located in the forests of Upstate New York, his duty is to aid the ill, mend wounds, and dispose the bodies of those he failed to save. However, everything changes after the village Outcast attempts suicide and Artemis realizes that the key to healing her insanity lies in learning of the village's dark and bloody secrets. There are only a few people willing to risk their lives to help Artemis, and unfortunately, there are even more people who would rather the secrets be kept in the past, as their power lies in their visages. Artemis's only refuge from his dangerous home lies in the company of a few rowdy teenagers from the small town that borders the forest. Despite these Outsiders' seemingly carefree and plentiful lifestyles, even they seem to have their dark little secrets to hide. Burden is intended for mature audiences. All characters and incidents are fictional. This copy of Burden is a first draft edition that has not been professionally edited. The author has no intentions of taking Burden or future installments of The Burden Trilogy to a professional editor or traditional publisher at this time. All efforts have been made to provide readers with a unique story that remains true to its original working drafts. Readers are encouraged to take sample chapters from Amazon and go through Amazon reviews prior to making a purchase. Thank you. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
