Becoming a parent is life altering in itself, yet for a select few parents gifted in raising a special needs child, life is abruptly turned upside down as they discover that their precious child has been diagnosed with a life changing condition. In the unique true story of Loving the Soul Beneath the Autism, one family s heartfelt account is revealed through honest confessions and helpful strategies that provide insight for a parent, grandparent, friend, and others into the interior feelings and external experiences with which special needs families struggle every day. You will be guided through the early life stages of one family s child, beginning in utero and culminating with his entrance into school at the age of five. Their life was not easy, at times downright exhausting, frustrating, and trying, yet the perseverance of denying oneself to fully assist in raising another human soul becomes the most rewarding experience of all. This book will leave your heartstrings stretched. You will ride the waves of one seemingly typical family in today s society as they discover that their first-born child is not the easy bundle of joy they imagined. Despite negativity and the preconceived ideas of others, they learn to pull their lives out of a downward spiral for the betterment of their special child. May you be led to step out of your own comfort zone and truly put yourself in another s shoes...
