By Heather Tosteson

Wising Up Press, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .GERMS OF TRUTH A book about life, death, families of all ages, stages, and orientation-and sperm banks. In this engaging and thoughtful collection of short stories, we find people of all ages trying to make sense-poignant, often funny, sometimes wise-of the many, changing ways they intersect as parents, children, and families from conception to death. In the first section, We re All Donors Here, a woman muses, I mean, when you go to a sperm bank, you have to realize that sperm is like money. It gets handled by a lot of people but is essentially impersonal. It s what you use it for that gives it meaning. An exasperated mother straight talks her disconsolate, perfectionist daughter who has transposed a number on her sperm order, All this picking and choosing, all this getting it right is a delusion. Always has been. What lies beyond right is what these donors and recipients of sperm banks explore: A young woman applies her creative writing skills to donor profiles, a high school senior indifferent to meeting her sperm donor seeks out her second mother instead,...
