

Enter the Lagan (Paperback)

By Paul Drain

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Enter the Lagan Set amid recent reports of what would appear to be paranormal activity, strange noises rise up from below Belfast s former trouble-torn streets. Menacing noises which shake the city to its very foundations. Evocative noises which serve to remind the inhabitants of long forgotten legends and atrocities dating from the Great Famine to the Second World War. None of this interests our unsuspecting hero, Hugh Cullen, a mediocre amateur boxer who is more concerned with his immediate personal problems: unemployment and a heavily pregnant, teenage girlfriend with a missing alcoholic father. To make matters worse, his granny has just become involved with a new geriatric boyfriend, a sinister oriental gentleman, with links to a new Japanese fast food corporation that has been enticed into Northern Ireland in a bid to attract foreign investment and create employment. Nobody thinks to mention, though, that the Anti-Yacuzza Measures in Japan have driven the Japanese Mob overseas in order to expand their empire. Where better than a modern, demilitarised, post-ceasefire Belfast, with its depleted new police force, for organised crime to flourish? When...
