 Along the paths that pierce the solitude Of the vast bush, where giant timber towers
 Toward the sky and Nature in the rude Is all around. Scarcely a sound is heard
 To tell of life, for when the sun mounts high All Nature slumbers, and not e en a bird

 Declare another day is well-nigh done. Then from the shadow of some Sheltering bower
 Wake choristers to cheer the sinking sun. With notes, some harsh, some sweet, the songsters come.
