Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The author s book, Curing Mental Illness describes the results from his research he completed for the Canadian Space Agency s Predictive Medicine Program in cooperation with the Russian Cosmonauts in 2012 and 2013 to determine if the author could use his company s PHM technology to predict which astronauts in training would become mentally ill on a deep space mission lasting several years. An edited copy by the CSA of the results of the author s research were published at the 2013 IEEE/AIAA Aerospace Conference held in Big Sky Montana for the CSA s Predictive Medicine Program personnel and subsequently the full results were submitted to NASA Headquarters in 2013 and published on-line for public access in the American Journal of Applied Psychology. Curing Mental Illness provides a complete explanation for acquiring emotional and mental illnesses as well as a program for recovering from emotional and mental disorders such as depression, anxiety, OCD, through bi-polar or schizophrenia as well as an explanation for why and how the fight or flight response causes autism in developing fetuses/babies. The author includes the description of why and how these are acquired by the fetus and people and how they are nothing more than our own body s defensive process trying to get us safe and keep us safe from our own life threatening decisions and lifestyle and the external environment for fetuses. Curing Mental Illness includes two massive reference sections and excerpts in the body of the text from members of the existing and past mental health community members and their professional opinions that the author has refuted with his own research results at the beginning of the book. The author also includes both...
