iUniverse, United States, 2007. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . EKA, England and America, 1935-1942 EKA the multi-volume memoir is a song, Erica s song, a spiritual, sung about her life and God; how she followed her spirituality, her feelings, the waiting, worrying, then knowing the way, heart singing, through many passages in her long, long life. Erica Maria Johanna Grossgerge was born in the German capitol of Berlin on the first day of January, nineteen hundred and eleven: 1/1/11. Her life spans most of the twentieth century and she considers herself blessed to have met so many spiritual figures important to the world s well being. As a young adult Erica was continually drawn towards the English-speaking world, first by the film Showboat, then by her employment in American and English companies. In Munich she met and fell in love with the son of an American diplomat. After becoming engaged, the couple moved to England, she to work as an au pair while he attended Cambridge, where they got married. The university was a truly international place, and she found delight in making the global friendships that she would keep throughout their lives. Many paths and many years later, the book EKA was written. There still is much more, she says.
