Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Annual Report, the 175th Annual Session of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina: Lawrence Joel Memorial Coliseum, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, November 14-16, 2005 The Convention is 175 years old and growing strong, with the unabashed exuberance of a child still in awe of what God is doing among us. Our total number of churches surpassed for the first time and we planted 103 new churches. Starting new churches is our most effective evangelism and growth strategy and we intend to stay focused on this work. Cooperative Program Missions Giving increased and gifts met the budget, stopping a two - year decline in which receipts were lower than the previous year. In mid year Jim Royston retired from convention work to return to the pastorate, this time at First Baptist Church, Mooresville. His neighboring pastor, Robert Jackson of Peninsula Baptist Church in Mooresville, was named to chair a search committee for a new Executive director-treasurer. Robert Jackson presented my name to a special called convention session on April 11, 2006 and North Carolina Baptists elected me to this office, from where...
