

Poems in the Sea of Life (Paperback)

By Robert Carlos Sr

Christian Faith Publishing, Inc., United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The book of poems is written as a thought-provoking gesture meant to spurn casual or formal conversation, enlightenment, and motivation as well as learned discussion about God s Word. Some poems are a recompilation, whole or in part of a Bible book, or was inspired by a particular book or passage(s). The poems do not serve as a witness to profess an authoritative doctrine or directive written by Bible scholars. They can, however, be a catalyst to invoke personal insight about one s own faith and God s purpose for their lives. One example is the poem, Choice, where a lark serves as a metaphor of some who cannot seem to choose whether to serve God or mammon (money or idols), and even when they think they re sure which, they remain stagnant in their lives and fail to find their true spirituality. That is until they choose the road to salvation. One practical application of a poem could be used in settings such as a Bible study and/or Sunday school. Every church could use a copy as study material....
