Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Study of Education in Vermont, Vol. 7 The Legislature of Vermont, under a joint resolution approved November 19, 1912, provided for a commission to report upon the educational responsibilities of the state. The scope of the work of this commission is defined in the resolution as follows: Whereas, a doubt has arisen in the minds of many of those most intimately related to the secondary and elementary schools of the state as to the efficiency of our common school system, and Whereas, a similar doubt prevails among many friends of higher education regarding the adequacy of the return which the state is getting from its appropriations in aid thereof, and Whereas, His Excellency, the Governor, has recommended in a recent message the appointment of a commission to investigate and report on these matters: Therefore, it is hereby Resolved by the Senate and the House of Representatives, That a commission of nine persons, at least two of whom shall be experts in or engaged in educational work, shall be appointed by the Governor to enquire into the entire educational system and condition of this state. This commission shall report at the earliest possible date on the several rights, duties, and obligations of the University of Vermont and State Agricultural College, Middlebury College, and Norwich University, with such recommendations as will prevent unnecessary duplication and consequent financial waste. Resolved, That as soon as practicable after reporting on the institutions of higher learning herein before referred to, the said commission shall recommend, by bill or otherwise, such reorganization of our public elementary and secondary schools, in adjustment to the entire educational system of the state, as will promote the ends of unity,...
