In addition, the Department of Defense Information Assurance Certification and Accreditation Process, published in November 2007, is documented in DOD 8510. 01 and the online DIACAP knowledge service. Also, the establishment of an information security program is described in DOD regulation 5200. 01-R, dated January 1997. The intelligence community is a federation of executive branch agencies Intelligence Community and organizations that work separately and together to conduct intelligence activities necessary for the conduct of foreign relations and 20 the protection of the national security of the United States. Member organizations include intelligence agencies, military intelligence, and civilian intelligence and analysis offices within federal executive departments. The community is led by the Director of National Intelligence, who oversees and directs the implementation of the National Intelligence Program. Historically, the intelligence community has had separate instructions related to information system security. For example, Director of Central Intelligence Directive ( DCID ) 6 3, Protecting Sensitive Compartmented 21 Information within Information Systems, and its implementation manual...
