Brand New Book  Print on Demand .When the Senate cast Lucifer into the bottomless pit for being a bit upperty, they have no idea what they are unleashing on the peaceful triple cities of Trinity. Lucifer s son, Lucid, vows to free his father and conquer Eden, so sets sail across the Perfumed Sea from the Dark Continent with an horde of monsters, demons, and really unpleasant people. The Archangel Michael knows his Guardians have no chance against heavily armed minotaurs, werewolves, vampires, blood-sucking demons, and the men with hangovers. He and the Holy Ghost must find some brave soul to save them. They bring Dylan from the Other Place to be their hero. Dylan, a work-shy anarchist with a total disregard for authority. Not a great choice. But Lucid kidnaps his sister, so now he s on a quest. A term usually reserved for a mission where limbs are lost and a lot of hacking to death occurs. Still, he goes anyway-along with an old wizard and a sentient cat. Lucid takes his war to the Other Place where the young go to learn wisdom. There he plans to establish his kingdom and win the hearts and minds of the students before they return to Eden. He picks Benton, a little town in Nowhere USA. And that s where The Flare make their last stand. An old jazz sax player, and angry Brit woman, and two kids. Against everything the Dark One can throw at them. Not looking good then. Things get worse for Eden. When the old stork decides flying to the snowy north is just too hard and leaves her bundles with carefully selected parents she picks at random in Eden, she sets in motion...
