For centuries, Luna Lake and its surrounding natural beauty have been a source of comfort to those who have made their way to its shore. Now, Sean Adams and Liz Chambers have each returned to the cabins they knew as children, both seeking to escape painful memories from their pasts. Three oranges, a puzzle, and a sharing of confidences result in a bond of friendship between the two, but Christmas isn't about friendship or escape. It's about love and all of its promise. Together, can they find their way to the paths forward they seek? In her Luna Lake Cabins novel Two Reservations for Christmas, internationally beloved, From Women's Pens author and publisher Annie Acorn once again weaves a warm-hearted tale of strength and survival, filled with the southern charm and Christmas spirit for which she is known. Some stories are born classics, destined to be read over and over again. You don't want to miss this one!.
