Jewish Storyteller Press, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Celebrate the holiday of Chanukah with eight original short stories by Jewish storyteller Scott Hilton Davis. Enjoy a fun-filled journey to Oykvetchnik, the tiny shtetl town in Eastern Europe where people complain a lot (except during Chanukah when they seem to be a little more charitable). Meet Chaim the Chanukiyah, the nine-branched menorah, who feels out of place in his new home, Myzeleh the Mouse who helps a poor orphan boy find his true calling, Pinchas ben Mordechai who survives twenty-five years in the Tsar's army, Reb Shimon the Shammes who has misplaced the synagogue's big menorah, Channele the Rabbi's daughter who finally meets her beshert (her soul mate), and the kind-hearted Dovidl who fears the town's beggar may be the rightful owner of his family's new pawnshop menorah. One for each night of the holiday, these sweet and heartwarming Chanukah stories will fill your heart with the light of Jewish history, culture, and values. As the candles burn low, spend a few minutes remembering the lives of our ancestors and how they joyfully celebrated their Jewish traditions...

Reviews

Definitely one of the better books we have possibly read. We have read through and I am certain that I am going to go back and study once again yet again in the foreseeable future. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

This publication is really gripping and exciting. It really is basic but unexpected situations in the 50% in the book. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
