EBook Bakery. Paperback. Condition: New. 108 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.2in. Only the most special people ought to read this. Its for those who have believed since birth that people and moose can live together happily as a family. As long as you expect an occasional glitch. Mike the Moose trusts we can all get along, although he had doubts at first. He wanted a family more than anything, but he wasnt so sure his family could be humans. After all, it was humans who kidnapped Mike at the mall. And didnt humans accidentally leave Mike on a spacecraft barreling towards Mars If it wasnt for Mikes human mother Susan and his sister Carrie, human too, hed never have gotten in that much trouble in Madrid - that day he practically ruined the State Departments trap for Generalissimo Alfonso Ramonito Crakov del Buston - leader of the Spanish underworld. In fairness, Mike gets himself into adventure after adventure pretty much on his own accord. He claims he merely wants to help. Supposedly he only wants to help when Mike and the Commander in Chief of the United States of America learn how badly kids at an orphanage need them. The kids want a family too but to get dopted, Mikes word not the Presidents, Mike has to get the man in the oval office to pull a few strings, in addition to those on the Presidents personal yo-yos. Give Mike a choice and hed just as soon stay home with Carrie. and play marbles. Youre aware that Mikes nothing less than the most famous marble expert in the world. Ask him anything about marbles and, as long as Mikes in one of his rare good moods, hell tell you all about them. If you meet Mike the Moose, definitely...
