

Five-Star Sundays, Two-Star Mondays: An Un-Altar-Ed Memoir by a Minister's Daughter (Paperback)

By Laird T White

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .When Laird White tells people her father was a minister, she says she can see in their eyes that they're imagining her as a kid, constantly on her knees, praying, singing hymns, and memorizing psalms. Are they right? No. In truth, she says, I grew up standing with my siblings in our kitchen, or someone's living room, singing very funny (and sometimes a bit off-color) songs my minister-father had collected - no hymns included. While growing up, Dad's church became a part of Laird's family and often the stage for what she called Rascal Religion. Even after one of his kids played a prank in church, her father would stifle a laugh. His parenting was warm; her mother's -arctic. Humor and serious poetry became Laird's armor when facing her mother, bats in a barn, meanness in her medieval boarding school, and the roaring sixties with its badly-behaving-bosses. When she finally married the right man, she was no longer Laird Trowbridge-the minister's daughter -but Laird White, married to a fun guy and mother of two wonderful...
