Excerpt: . reserved from forced sale from administration, and therefore, the fact that the succession of the deceased was still open, cannot in any way affect the case, and the ruling of the court cannot be sustained on this ground. Does the 26th section give us the rule of descent? The title of the law is, An act prescribing the mode of proceeding in District Courts in matters of probate; and to give the law the effect contended for by appellee, would make it obnoxious to the constitutional provision, that every law enacted by the Legislature shall embrace but one object, and that shall be expressed in the title. Evidently, the statute contemplates only a remedy, and not a rule of right. If I am correct in my view of this statute, it is sustained by the soundest principles of policy and right. If the...
