

Corporate Counsel Guides: Corporation Law (Paperback)

By Thomas Lee Hazen, James D. Cox

American Bar Association, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Corporate law is underlined by its own set of reasoning and policy issues, and in-house counsel particularly those with no business or economic background need a thorough guide to the legalities of a corporation, from formation through dissolution. In 27 chapters, Corporate Counsel Guides: Corporation Law examines the key rules, regulations, and duties governing a corporation, and includes completely up-to-date information on recent Delaware and other leading decisions focused on fiduciary obligations and duties in corporate acquisitions; state and statutory developments affecting corporations, including the Dodd-Frank Act; the changing landscape of securities fraud suits in the federal courts; and insightful explanations of such news-making issues as corporate governance and director liabilities.
