Excerpt from Compassion to the Poor Recommended: A Sermon, Delivered in the First Baptist Meeting House, Philadelphia, February the Fourth, 1810, and Published at the Request and for the Profit of the Female Baptist Benevolent Society in Said City It was probably in relation to this last source of poverty, the visitations of God, that our text was uttered. A little before the sun of prophecy went down prophets came from Jerusalem unto Antioch and there stood up one of them, named Agabus, and signified by the spirit, that there should be great dearth throughout all the world; which came to pass in the days of Claudius Cesar. Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send relief unto the Brethren which dwelt in Judea. These brethren felt the calamity more severely, as on the effusion of the spirit at the feast of Pentecost as many as were possessors of houses and lands, sold them, and laid the prices of the things at the apostles feet, and as Judea was the seat of the first fierce...
