Excerpt from Shelter, Vol. 3: A Correlating Medium for Housing Progress; April 1939 No uniform density - no fixed number of persons per acre - can be recommended, because density must vary with location and with other factors. Heretofore densities have usually been determined on the basis of land costs - high land prices, high densities. Densities should be determined on the basis of sound principles of land usage, and prices paid for land should be consistent with the use to which it is to be put. Height and coverage must not exceed a point which will endanger light, air. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
