The EssayB here presented form a further selection from Schopenhauers Parerga, brought together under a title which is not to be found in the original, and does not claim to apply to every chapter in the volume. The first essay is, in the main, a rendering of the philosophers remarks under the heading of NachtrUge zur Lekre vom Leiden der Welt, together with certain parts of another section entitled Nachtrage zur Lehre von der Bejahung und Verneinung des Willens zum Leben. Such omissions as I have made are directed chiefly by the desire to avoid repeating arguments already familiar to readers of the other volumes in this series. The Dialogue on Immortality sums up views expressed at length in the philosophers chief work, and treated again in the Parerga. The Psychological Observations in this and the previous volume practically exhaust the chapter of...
