Plain View Press, United States, 2008. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand  .what I like in the undervoice and the subterranean narrative threading it all together, the world speaking its mind only as a conduit for stark awareness of the damaged and beautiful self.(selves). All the big themes here, in an intimate whisper, in shocking disbelief, gushing with desire - amazing lyric poetry. David Dodd Lee, poet and editor, Half Moon Bay Editing These unexpected and often category-breaking lines give us Stella Radulescu s acute sense of chaotic, lonely and metaphysically absurd where before death without resurrection our hope and reality is the unbearable beauty of a dream-turtle with blue eyes or a snowflake on the tip of the tongue or where before dawn on the Black Sea we can leave our bodies long before time. Prof. Paul Friedrich, Anthropology Linguistics, University of Chicago Poetry apparently emanates from Stella Vinitchi Radulescu as any essential element from source. Her work is that lucid and pure. Such understated elegance cannot be taught, only learned from a deep life. Richard Fammeree, poet and director of UniVerse of Sans doute, faut-il voir dans ce cheminement de langages l origine de cette recherche du mot juste, de cette economie de fioritures verbales qui permettent a Stella V. Radulescu, lauratee 2007 du Prix Art Poesie de nous offrir une poesie libre de haute qualite, ou les sons creent l image, ou l image s infiltre au trefonds de l etre pour faire vibrer les cordes les plus sensibles du coeur. Veronique Flabat-Piot, Vice- Presidente de la Societe des Poetes et Artistes de France.
