In book two of the Landcaster Brothers: She knows that if he catches her, she will die by her ex-boyfriend s hands. Clair runs to the only person she knows who can help her, her friend, Hailey, and Hailey s fiance, Mark Landcaster. They take her away to unlikely protectors who will keep her safe and he can never find her. Slade Landcaster has better things to do than babysit some scared little mouse, but as long as she stays out of his way they will get along fine. With his roommate, Hunter, along for the ride, they protect the abused but curvy beauty that was thrust into their care. With Clair running from one man, how is she supposed to feel safe with two hulking men? A better question is-why does she desire them instead of fearing them? As she heals and the more time spent together, she may be in trouble of losing her heart to the two men. Do they feel the same about her or is she just an unwanted house guest they are playing with and keeping safe until her abuser is gone for good?.
